Winter Convention

Continuing Education and Business Development

Round out the 2022 calendar year with the entire WSPMA workforce. This convention presents both owners and technicians for the chance to learn alongside each other. While technicians gather to hear technical topics, business owners and managers are just down the hall reinforcing the knowledge it takes to run a business. At the conclusion of the first day, we then come together and enjoy a networking event. On Saturday morning, the WSPMA will hold its final General Membership meeting of the year.
